Sector Name	Application	Key Point
Education	Educating platform	1. IoT technology makes it easier for teachers to keep tabs on their students. 2. can use student performance data to continually evaluate how effective their teaching is and take a more informed instructional approach One of the most issues with the Internet of Things is the potential for privacy issues. Tracking students' movements, for instance, could result in a risk of confidential student information being shared tourism	Almosafer	1 .IoT offers tourist with the objective to attract new visitors. 2. build customer loyalty based on the confidence offer. 3 .increase the value proposition to obtain new incomes.

An application to integrated family day that allow booking restaurant and places.